

Take away a little of our local history

As part of the war effort to defend Northern Australia during WW2, allied forces were deployed here to Iron Range in 1942- 1943. This book provides a fascinating insight to those uncertain times for Australia and the vital role this region played in War effort.

ONLY
$14ea